

THE ORANGE COUNTY REGISTER

NEWS

Read and hike at the Newport Beach Environmental Nature Center

By LOUIS CASIANO | lcasiano@scng.com | Orange County Register
November 6, 2017 at 11:50 am

0 COMMENTS

The Environmental Nature Center invites children and their parents to an outdoor reading of "The Giving Tree" on Sunday, Nov. 12.

After the reading, participants will go on a hike to collect invasive plants and launch seed balls from the meadow deck.

The story tells the tale of a boy's relationship with an apple tree.

Parents must accompany children. Visitors are encouraged to bring blankets or towels.

If you go:

When: 9:30-11 a.m., Sunday, Nov. 12.

Where: Environmental Nature Center, 1601 E. 16 St.

Cost: $5 per child with a pre-registered membership. $7 for pre-registered non-members and $10 for walk-in guests. No charge for adults.

Information: encenter.org or call 949-645-8489.

