Reading In The Redwoods

November 12

Kids, and their parents, will take a "Tree Hug Hike" out to the Redwood Forest, where they will listen to Valerie Bain read The Giving Tree under a big tree. Families should bring their own towel or blanket to use while relaxing during this storytime. Afterward, everyone will take a nature walk, help in an ENC clean-up, and launch seed balls from the meadow deck. Parents must remain with children at all times. Pre-registration requested; walk-ups are accepted if there is room.
