The Environmental Nature Center (ENC) is calling all babies 3 - 9 months along with their significant adults to join Outreach Coordinator Mindy Schwartz for an unstructured "Parent and Me"-style class on the ENC grounds from Dec. 5, 2017 - Jan. 16, 2018.

Each week, you'll hike out to a different habitat along the trails, set up a big blanket, and relax with your babies in the shade of the forest canopy. Parents will get to know one another while the babies experience "tummy time" and free play outdoors. Each session will end with story time and a song.

This is a six-week series on Tuesdays from 11 a.m. to 12 p.m. Cost: $24 for members; $30 for non-members. Babies and their adults only, please; no older children are permitted to attend. Strollers are discouraged; baby-wearing devices are encouraged. Registration is required, no walk-ins. Sign up on the website at www.encycenter.org.

Environmental Nature Center is located at 1601 E. 16th St., Newport Beach.
